The Company has designated Mr. Ratnakar Nawghare Company Secretary as its Compliance Officer to administer this Code. Directors, at their discretion, may make any report or complaint provided for in this Code to the Chairman of the Board of the Company or to the Compliance Officer. The Compliance Officer will refer complaints submitted to the Chairman of the Board.

COMPLIANCE WITH APPLICABLE LAWS

In the discharge of their duties and responsibilities, Directors must comply with all applicable laws, rules and regulations. These would include securities laws, insider trading laws and the Company's insider trading compliance policies.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Directors must avoid conflicts of interest. Directors should also be mindful of, and seek to avoid, conduct which could reasonably be construed as creating an appearance of a conflict of interest. While Directors should be free to make personal investments and enjoy social relations and normal business courtesies, they must not have any interests that adversely influence the performance of their duties, functions and responsibilities as Directors of the Company. A conflict of interest can arise when a Director or a Member of his/her immediate family receives improper personal benefits as a result of his/her position as a Director of the Company. A conflict situation can also arise when a Director takes an action or has an interest that may make it difficult for him or her to perform his or her duties, functions and responsibilities objectively and effectively.

While the Code does not attempt, and indeed it would not be possible, to describe all conceivable conflicts of interest that could develop, the following are some examples of situations which may constitute conflicts of interest:

- Working, in any capacity, for a competitor, customer, supplier or other third party while employed by the Company.
- Competing with the Company for the purchase or sale of property, products, services or other interests.
- Directing business to a supplier owned or managed by, or which employs, a relative or friend.
- Receiving loans or guarantees of obligations as a result of one's position as a Director.
- Accepting bribes, kickbacks or any other improper payments for services relating to the conduct of the business of the Company.
- Accepting, or having a Member of a Director's family accept, a gift from persons or entities that deal with the Company, where the gift is being made in order to influence the Director's actions as a Member of the Board, or where acceptance of a gift could otherwise reasonably create the appearance of a conflict of interest.

Conflicts of interest may not always be clear-cut. Any question therefore about a Director's actual or potential conflict of interest with the Company should be brought promptly to the attention of the Chairman of the Board, who will review the question and determine a proper course of action, including whether consideration or action by the full Board is necessary. Directors involved in any conflict or potential conflict situations shall recuse themselves from any discussion or decision relating thereto.

CORPORATE OPPORTUNITY

Directors shall not –

- (a) Compete with the Company; or
- (b) Take for themselves personally any business opportunities that belong to the Company or are discovered through the use of corporate property, information or position; or
- (c) Use corporate property, information or position for personal gain.

All Directors must maintain the confidentiality of confidential information entrusted to them or disclosed or acquired by them in carrying out their duties and responsibilities, except where such disclosure is authorised by the Company or is required by laws, regulations or legal proceedings. The term “confidential information” includes, but is not limited to, non-public information that might be of use to competitors of the Company or harmful to the Company or its customers, if disclosed. Whenever feasible, Directors should consult the Chairman of the Board or the Compliance Officer if they believe they have a legal obligation to disclose confidential information.

FAIR DEALING

Directors should endeavour to deal fairly with the Company’s customers, suppliers, competitors, officers and employees. No Director shall take unfair advantage of the Company’s customers, suppliers, competitors or employees through manipulation, concealment, abuse of privileged information, misrepresentation of material facts or any other unfair dealing practice. Gifts or entertainment in any form that is likely to result in a feeling of expectation of personal obligation should not be extended or accepted.

PROTECTION AND PROPER USE OF COMPANY ASSETS

Directors should perform their duties in a manner that protects the Company’s assets and ensures their efficient use. The Company’s assets should be used for legitimate business purposes.

REPORTING ANY ILLEGAL OR UNETHICAL BEHAVIOUR

Directors are encouraged to promptly contact the Chairman of the Board or the Compliance Officer if the Director believes that he or she has observed illegal or unethical behaviour by any employee, officer or director, or by any one purporting to be acting on the Company’s behalf or any violation or possible violation of this Code and the reporting Director has any doubt as to the best course of action in a particular situation. Confidentiality will be maintained, to the extent permitted by law.

PUBLIC COMPANY REPORTING

As a public company, it is of critical importance that the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Board of India, the Reserve Bank of India and/or the concerned Stock Exchange(s) on which the securities of the Company are or may be listed be full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable. The Directors shall provide information necessary to ensure that the Company's published reports meet these requirements. The Company expects Directors to provide prompt and accurate answers to enquiries relating to its public disclosure requirements.

AMENDMENT, MODIFICATION AND WAIVER

This Code may be amended, modified or waived only by the Company's Board of Directors and must be publicly disclosed if required by any applicable law or regulation. As a general policy, the Board will not grant waivers to the Code.

CODE OF CONDUCT - FOR EMPLOYEES*FROM OUR COACH'S DESK*FROM OUR COACH'S DESK

When our Company first went public, K.C. Mahindra set aside some shares for the Company's employees. When several employees wrote to thank him, he acknowledged their affection and thanked them in a memo that stated, "It's nice to have money, but it's nicer to have the things that money can't buy." So, From very early in our history, Mahindra has stood for many things that money can't buy. And the most important among the things that money can't buy, is reputation.

Reputation and good governance have been part of the DNA of the Company from its inception. There are many times when we have chosen to be transparent, despite there being no mandate on us. For example, our Company has been reporting back to its shareholders on corporate governance, long before the law made it mandatory. There are many ways by which we have institutionalised the highest benchmarks of corporate working and behaviours in our processes. We have articulated a set of Core Values and Corporate Governance Policies that are open for anybody to see and we have structures such as the Corporate Governance Council firmly in place to ensure that all governance issues are effectively and transparently addressed.

All this is not just 'feel good stuff'. It pays business dividends. Business partners trust us, because we are clear on how we work and what we stand for. Foreign collaborators prefer us because they know that our expertise is supported by ethics.

Our shareholders know that this is a Company that will always do the right thing and will never let them down. Our people feel a sense of pride in working for Mahindra.

This Code of Conduct sets out what all of us need to understand and do, to ensure the highest standards of corporate behaviour. Please do study these principles and, more importantly, practise them in word and deed. If each and every one of us see ourselves as a role model for good governance, our Mahindra Group will continue to be rich in the things that money can't buy.

Anand Mahindra
Chairperson

OUR CAPTAIN SPEAKS

Dear Colleagues,

One of my deepest belief is that Values and Ethics are the bedrock for an organisation that will stand the test of time. Since 1945, we have set high standards for ethical practices and good governance. We have lived our values through good and difficult times and will continue to cherish and protect them over the years to come.

As custodians of our Values, I also believe it is essential that we evolve our processes to reflect changes in the business environment.

Hence, I am happy to share with you that now we have a refreshed Code of Conduct. The new Code has been simplified and made easy to understand. It is more relevant with the inclusion of new clauses in line with evolving governance practices. Further, the scope has been widened to cover data privacy, sustainability, prevention of sexual harassment and international sanctions.

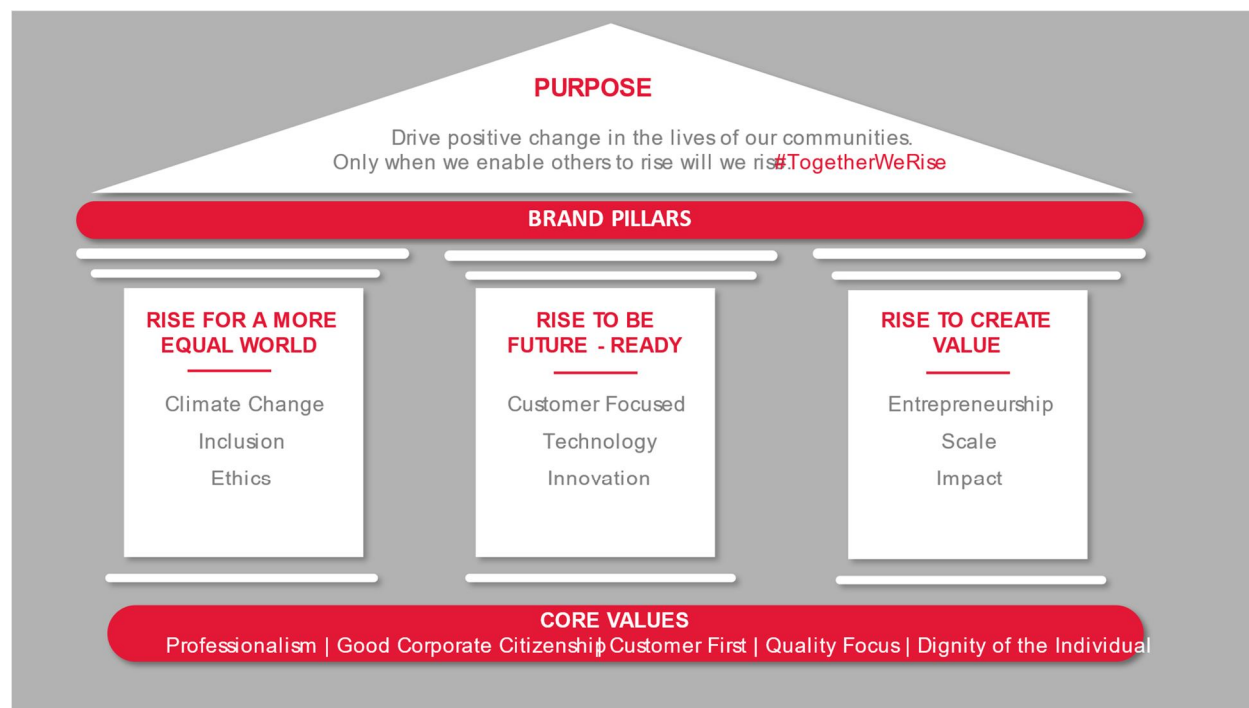

Governance is not about ticking a box, it is a potent source of competitive advantage. The Code binds all of us, irrespective of business, function, or location. It keeps our businesses strong and future ready. We owe this to the legacy of our foundation and hence there will be zero tolerance to non-compliance.

I urge you to take the time to understand our refreshed Code of Conduct. Our collective commitment to the Code is the driving force that truly makes Mahindra RISE.

Anish Shah
Managing Director & CEO
Mahindra Group
